Tasting Notes:

Catching the aroma of this wine is like walking through an orchard of lemon trees. Fresh cut blossoms greet the nose; soft, clean and inviting. On the palate, crisp green apple tempered by tropical notes of melon. A slightly buttery and creamy finish makes this wine a summer go-to. Pair with quinoa salad, mixed with shrimp, fresh cut bell peppers, cilantro, and lemon olive oil.

Tasting Notes: Fresh island scents with hints of cherry blossom wash over the senses while intense tropical flavors engulf the palate. Hints of pineapple and melon mix with soft acidity for a refreshing and lingering finish. Pairs well with ceviche garnished with cilantro and homemade tortilla chips or ahi tuna and a light pasta salad mixed with fresh peppers, onion and celery.

Tasting Notes:

It's a full bodied white wine that will make you feel like you are vacationing in The Hamptons. Rich stone fruit flavors of peach and apricot greet the palate while a fresher, floral aroma fills the air. This wine will make you feel like you are sitting beside the bay cracking open some fresh crab legs or lobster with lots of butter. Or you could simple bake some fresh tilapia spritzed with fresh lemon and lime juice on a bed of rice pilaf.
